

I am appalled that you would even consider expanding the percentages of media ownership. Most of the major media channels are already controlled by the political left. Fox news is the only major dissenting voice. This ruling makes it easy for those who control the media to now wipe out any fairness in news reporting. We may as well have state-owned television and radio. Our government should not destroy the ability of people who have dissenting opinions to get access to major media channels.